

SBRA Website Data Management 2009

This is a rough listing of the pages contained within the New SBRA Website (2009).

Next to each page on this list shows who will be responsible to manage and update the information.

Each person responsible for managing a page can ask others to assist them (committee). Please review each web page that you are responsible for and make sure the information is correct and that you fully understand what needs to be done.

NOTE: Each person responsible for managing information on the website must send updated information to the SBRA Website Editor: Brenda Meyer. If Brenda can't make the changes she will contact the SBRA Webmaster: Percy Zahl
